Quran Stories for Little Hearts

The Quran is full of exciting stories, adventures, teachings and prayers, which show Allah's love for us and explain what He requires from us as believers in and sincere servants of our Creator.

The Quran Stories for Little Hearts series is specially designed to provide an easy way to help your children understand more about the stories of the Quran by embying them and learning from them in a natural way. It's wonderful way to explain the greatest stories of the Quran to children and encourage them to explore the meaning and purpose of the word of Allah. A simple text and magnificent colour illustrations will captivate young, active minds.

The Brove Boy is a beautifully illustrated and creatively written story about the Prophet Ibrahim 🕾 and Ismail 🌫. It will capture the interest of children both at home and in the classroom.

Quran Stories for Little Hearts

by SANIYASNAIN KHAN

One night, the Prophet Ibrahim # dreamt that he was sacrificing his son, Ismail #. This was an order from his Lord.

Ibrahim ½ took his son away to sacrifice him. As he reached a place, which is now known as Mina—a valley near Makkah—Satan appeared and tried to stop him from doing his Lord's bidding.

The Prophet Ibrahim # gently placed his son on the ground and blindfolded himself with a handkerchief so that he could not see his beloved son while carrying out the Lord's command.

As Ibrahim took a knife to sacrifice Ismail to, Allah sent the Angel Jibril (Gabriel) down with a ram. "Sacrifice this ram. Do not sacrifice Ismail," said Jibril to Ibrahim Ibra
